BEER DISTRIBUTORS NAME 2012 OFFICERS, BOARD OF DIRECTORS

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK, February 8, 2012 – The Beer Distributors of Oklahoma (BDO), a 74-year-old advocacy association representing the interests of Oklahoma beer distributors, announced today its 2012 officer team.

“The BDO has been going strong since 1938 representing Oklahoma beer distributors at the state Capitol and in Washington,” said Brett Robinson, BDO president. “The majority of BDO distributorships are family-owned, multi-generation independent businesses who represent the second tier of the three-tier alcohol distribution system. We have an outstanding team of officers for 2012 who I am excited to work with as we continue our advocacy and public outreach efforts across many issues related to the beer distribution industry.”

The 2012 BDO officers include:

Chairman - Matt Jett, Jett Distributing Company, Clinton

Vice Chairman/Chairman-Elect – Gordon Green, Capital Distributing Company, OKC

Secretary/Treasurer – Mitch Zaloudek, Pope Distributing Company, Enid

Immediate Past Chairman – Tim Zaloudek, Pope Distributing Company, Enid

Director – Tommy Hitchcock, Hitchcock Distributing, Inc., Durant

Director – Lou Moreau, A&B Distributing, Muskogee

Director – Dan Solie, LDF Sales & Distributing, Inc., Tulsa

Director – Pete Lynaugh, AB Sales of Tulsa

Director – Dave Dierinzo, AB Sales of Oklahoma
